Hello All,

It has been a lovely week here at school and the children have settled back very well after such a well-earned rest.

There is some very changeable, quite chilly and rainy weather on its way please can all pupils arrive at school dressed appropriately for the season.

The school has been back for 12 days and my staff are working very hard to ensure that new classes gel and are able to work in a collaborative and calm environment. The new school curriculum is being delivered well (and this will only improve as new routines and methods of teaching are embedded). There is a well-known and documented summer dip with attitudes to learning and attainment in many pupils across the country and Welton is no exception. However, the children are really doing their very best to meet the challenges of new classes and new expectations and I would like to take this opportunity to thank them and my staff for their efforts so far this year.

Our new student leaders are in place and the Head Boy and Girl with their Treasurers have already approached me with some ideas for fundraising 😊. Soon the children will be able to make genuine and real improvements, suggested by the children, funded by the children and for the children. All this as well as raising money for the charities they select is a really positive and powerful thing for the children to be involved in. The next stage will be to have children representing the classes they are in. The younger children's feelings and opinions will be represented by an advocate from Otters. The children who eventually are in the role will also be expected to uphold the key Christian distinctiveness of our amazing school.

As ever thanks for your support,
Sol Johnson
